1. The Certificate in the Study of Spirituality requires 15 credit hours of coursework in the study of spirituality.
2. REL 3027: Meditation and Mystical Traditions is the required foundation course.
3. The certificate includes four additional courses (12 credits) in both traditional and “applied” spirituality, selected according to a student’s professional goals or personal interests, in consultation with a Program Director. Any FIU course with at least one third (1/3) “spirituality-related” content may be substituted with the Director’s approval.

Other courses may be substituted if the professor provides a note certifying that the course has a minimum of 33 percent “spirituality-related” content; this note along with a syllabus must be submitted by the student along with this form. Courses should be from more than one department.
